This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

PREFACE.

THE present volume forms part of a series of Calendars of the Patent Rolls from the reign of Edward I. to that of Henry VII., the object and character of which are explained in the Preface to the first volume for the reign of Edward III. (A.D. 1327—1330). The text has been prepared, under my immediate supervision, by Mr. G. J. Morris, of the Public Record Office, and he has also compiled the Index.

Appointment, during pleasure, of Roger Barry to the office of controller of customs and subsidies of wools, hides and wool-fells in the port of London and all ports thence on each side of the Thames to Gravesende, inclusive, on the one side, and Tillebury, inclusive, on the Essex side, provided that he execute the office in person. By bill of treasurer.

1392. Feb. 22. Westminster. The like of William Leche, in the port of Lenn. By bill of treasurer.

Dec. 8. Westminster. Appointment of John Croweshawe and William Emle to take carters and carts wherever found within liberties and without, except in the fee of the church, for timber, stone and other necessaries for repairing a sewer near queen Anne's mills in Nottingham, at the queen's charges.

Dec. 8. Westminster. Commission to William de Beauchamp, Matthew de Gournay, John de Peyto and Richard Stury, knights, and Masters John Barnet, Thomas Southam, John Burbache and John Aylemer, doctors of laws, to hear and determine the appeal of John Henton of Briggewater in a cause wherein after definitive sentence had been given in his favour in the court of admiralty in the West against John Kedwelly in respect of a sum of 237*l.* for the seizure and withdrawal of his goods by the said John Kedwelly, the latter, with his pledges William Thomer and Thomas Ermyt, half a year after judgment rendered, appealed to the king contrary to the law and form of the said court, whereupon commissaries for hearing and determining the same were appointed, viz. Master Thomas Sudbury, dean of Welles, and Baldwin Malet, knight, who have begun the cause and have proceeded so far therein that the said John Henton, feeling he would be greatly aggrieved by them, has now appealed to the king, as appears by his said appeal exhibited before the king in Chancery, praying that the king would appoint commissaries of such quality and number as are required by law for the hearing and determining of the cause. By p.s. [7781.]

Dec. 8. Westminster. Declaration, at the request of the mayor, bailiffs and commonalty of Berwick on Tweed, that although it was ordained by statute in Parliament in the year 7 Richard II that no person, alien or denizen, should send into Scotland armour, corn, malt, victuals or other refection under pain of forfeiting the same and the vessels, carts and horses carrying the same, yet at the request of the Commons in the last Parliament, with the assent of the prelates, nobles and magnates therein, it was declared that the statute was not intended to apply to persons bringing such things to Berwick on Tweed, the king's own town and in his allegiance, provided that exporters of such victuals and merchandise therefrom to parts in amity with the king duly paid customs and subsidies, and that only those incurred the penalty who exported the same to parts at enmity with the king. By pet. of the Commons in Parl.

Dec. 10. Westminster. Inspeximus and confirmation to the burgesses of Drusselond alias Drosselan of letters patent dated at Westminster, 6 February, 29 Edward III, inspecting and confirming a charter dated at Westminster, 25 March,

Dec. 12. Westminster. Protection, with the advice of the Council, during pleasure, with clause volumus, excepting causes in which he is summoned before the king's justices itinerant upon their eyres, for Master Nicholas de Hereford, professor of theology, who, on account of his zeal in preaching privately and openly in opposition to false teachers subverting the Catholic faith and infecting not only the laity but also the clergy and the learned (literatos) with their heresies and errors, is sued maliciously by his enemies in divers temporal courts with a view to his imprisonment and to prevent him further resisting their depraving doctrine. If any have to complain against the said Nicholas of any injury, let them come to the king or his council; yet this protection, which is of the king's own motion out of reverence for God and in support of the Catholic faith, is not to be a precedent. By p.s. [7791.]

Jan. 19. Westminster. Grant, by mainprise of Walter Swynhowe of Northumberland and Thomas Braunspath of the bishopric of Durham, to Ralph, lord de Nevyll, of the custody of the lands and tenements of Walter Heron and Robert Horsle, knights, deceased, who held of the heir of Thomas de Umfrevyle, tenant in chief, in the king's hand by their death and by reason of the minority of their heirs and the heir of the said Thomas, to hold during the said minority together with the marriages of the heirs, paying 100*l.* for the custody and marriage of the heir of Walter Heron and 50*l.* for those of the heir of the said Robert. By bill of treasurer.

May 15. Westminster. Grant to the king's clerks, Peter de Barton and John Gauwyn, of the custody of the hospital of St. John by Wilton, co. Wilts, with all its possessions, until a plea is determined which is pending before the king in Chancery between Geoffrey Gilot, chaplain, who has been eight years in peaceable possession thereof, and John May, clerk, to whom, on his suggestion that it was void and in the king's gift, the king granted it, but who is now called upon to show cause why the grant should not be revoked; great damage being commonly reported to be done by the said John May and others to the said hospital's possessions pendente lite.

MEMBRANE 12.

May 1. Westminster. Ratification of the estate of Nicholas Burthane as parson of St. Nicholas, Beverley.

May 6. Westminster. Grant, with the assent of the Council, out of special devotion to St. Augustine, and affection to the abbey and William Welde, now abbot of St. Augustine's, Canterbury, and in consideration of the great damages and losses sustained by the abbot and convent at the late voidance—after reciting letters patent dated 1 September, 9 Edward II—that in all future voidances of the abbey the prior and convent shall have the custody thereof and of all its temporalities with as full administration as the abbot when the seat is full, saving to the king knights' fees held of the abbey and advowsons, at the perpetual yearly rent of 50 marks at the Exchequer, beginning at Michaelmas next, in lieu of all the sums payable under the aforesaid letters patent, whereof the other provisions and concessions are hereby confirmed. Further, this rent is to remain annexed to the Crown without any remission thereof, in whole or in part, to any future abbot, or separation from the Crown by any alienation, assignment or demise whatever; and if any such be obtained by any abbot or prior in future, this grant is void. By p.s.

May 15. Westminster. Licence for the alienation in mortmain to the prior and convent of Thurgarton by Master Richard de Wynwyk and William de Gunthorp, clerks, of (1) three messuages, eleven tofts, twenty-four bovates and thirty-three acres of land, forty-five acres and one rood of meadow, 17*s.* 5*d.* of rent and the rent of four hens and a moiety of the rent of a pound of pepper with appurtenances in Roldeston, Suthwell, Eddyngley, Farnesfeld, Bleseby, Goverton, Gippesmer, Morton by Suthwell and Halum by Suthwell, not held in chief, and of the yearly value, exclusive of the rent aforesaid, of 54*s.* as found by inquisition taken by John de Bruggeford, escheator in the county of Nottingham, and (2) the reversion of a toft in Morton by Suthwell, similarly held, after the death of Lucy, daughter of Ralph Cotes, and Alice, her daughter, tenants thereof for their lives by demise of John de Annesley; in full satisfaction of divers letters patent of the late king granting to them licence to acquire lands and tenements in mortmain to the yearly value of 18*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.*

May 26. Westminster. MEMBRANE 11.

May 8. Westminster. Revocation, giving effect to a decision in Chancery, of letters patent granting to Thomas, duke of Gloucester, the custody, during the minority of the heir, of the lands and tenements late of Hugh de Straulay, knight. By inquisition taken before Thomas de Neuton, escheator in the county of Derby, it was found that the said Hugh held in his demesne as of fee on the day he died two parts of the manor of Haselbeche in le Peek in that county of Nicholas de Straulay; by the service of the fourth part of a knight's fee, and 60*s.* of rent of assize from certain free tenants in Repyngdon, of the duke of Lancaster, by knight service, that he held no other lands therein, and that John, his son, a minor, was his heir. Upon the petition of the said duke and Nicholas for removal of the seizure on the said rent and two parts of the manor, and for delivery to them of the issues from each since the said Hugh's death, as he held no lands of the king in chief, the sheriff was directed to require Thomas, duke of Gloucester, to show cause against the removal of the seizure and delivery aforesaid, but though summoned by John Amot and William Rosell the duke failed to appear.

May 1. Westminster. Whereas William Turnour, John Litle, Peter atte Grene and John Gateward acquired in fee from William Maschall of Great Dunmowe thirty acres of land and eight of meadow and pasture in Takeleye, co. Essex, held in chief, and granted the same to the said William Maschall and Maud, his wife, in fee tail, with remainder to the said William and his heirs, and the latter subsequently granted the premises to Seman Turnour of Great Dunmowe and John Litle of Wretle, in fee simple, and all the parties aforesaid successively entered on the premises without licence had, the king, for 4 marks paid in the hanaper, pardons the trespasses aforesaid, and grants licence to the said Seman and John Litle to enfeoff John Reynes, vicar of Takeleye, and John Hokkeleye and Elizabeth, his wife, of the premises.

Nov. 14. Westminster. Appointment of John Elyngeham, the king's serjeant-at-arms, to arrest and bring before the king and council Henry Tebbe of Threnguston and William, his brother, Robert Sisselson, Robert Grubber, Richard Sprot and John Grenelowe, for certain reasons proposed to the king and council in the present Parliament.

Dec. 20. Westminster. Commission to Master Thomas Dalby, archdeacon of Richmond, Master John de Neweton, clerk, Master William Kelleth, clerk, Robert Savage, mayor of York, William Frost, Thomas Graa and Thomas Slegill, to examine and certify the state of the hospital of St. Leonard, York, Thomas, archbishop of York, chancellor, to whom the visitation belongs, being too busy; it having come to the king's ears that divers defects exist therein, both in the mansion (manso) thereof and the buildings within the mansion, and in its books, jewels, ornaments and other possessions, and that by default and carelessness it is charged with corrodies sold and given to divers persons and with hurtful demises of its possessions, as well as oppressed by the excessive expenditure of its heads and laden with debt, so that its remaining revenues are insufficient to support master, brethren and sisters or the poor and needy inmates, whereby divine service is diminished and the hospital threatened with extinction.

MEMBRANE 30d.

1392. Jan. 24. Westminster. Commission to Thomas de Percy, justice of South Wales, or the person supplying his place, and the sheriff of Kermerdyn, to enquire and certify touching waste in the alien priory of St. Clear, in the king's hand on account of the war with France.

MEMBRANE 29d.

Jan. 20. Westminster. Commission to John Fitz Rauf, knight, Roger Drury, knight, and Robert Asshefeld to enquire what lands and tenements in Suffolk John Filiole held of the king in chief on the day of his death, in demesne or in service, and what of others, by what service and their value, Edmund de Lakyngheth, the late escheator, having returned that he held none, because long before his death he with the king's licence divested himself (se dimisit) of the manor of Asshefeld, which is held in chief; on information that he did hold certain lands in that county in his demesne as of fee of the king in chief.

Jan. 24. Westminster. Commission to Robert Clifford, Geoffrey Clerk and William Passelewe to enquire and certify touching waste since the beginning of the reign in the alien priory of Bristall in Holdernesse, co. York, in the king's hand on account of the war with France.

Feb. 12. Westminster. Commission to Hugh de Ardern, Amandus Veile, William Chaumberleyn of Aton and Thomas Percy of Kyngeston upon Hull, to enquire and certify touching the export by merchants and other lieges in the East Riding of the county of York of cloth, wool, hides, wool-fells and other merchandise without paying custom or subsidy.

Feb. 15. Westminster. Commission to John Hull, John Wadham, William Dowbrigg, James Chuddelegh, escheator in Devon, and William Hankford, on information that the manor of Towstoke upon the death of Ralph de Basset of Drayton, who held it of the king in chief, by knight service, should by virtue of a fine levied in the late reign have reverted to Fulk Fitz Waryn, knight, deceased, and the custody thereof by reason of the minority of Fulk, his son and heir, belongs to the king, to enquire and certify touching the premises, extending the manor. By bill of treasurer.

Feb. 15. Westminster. The like to the same to enquire touching concealments and subtractions of wardships and marriages, customs, subsidies, escheats, treasure trove, rents and services belonging to the king in Devon and Cornwall, and also touching waste by the king's ministers and others therein.
By bill of treasurer.

MEMBRANE 28d.

Feb. 5. Westminster. Appointment of John Bytham, the king's serjeant-at-arms, for reasons specified in a petition to the king in Chancery by Frowyn Stepyng and Arnald Vandeler, merchants of the Hanse in Almain, to arrest and bring before the king and council at Westminster, Vincent de Beke, burgess of Colchester.

1391. Dec. 18. Westminster. Commission to John de Ask, Robert de Garton, clerk, Hugh Ardern, Robert Sturmy, Amandus Veil and the escheator in the county of York, on information that John, son and heir of Peter Ughtrede, who held by knight service of the heir of Peter de Malo Lacu, knight, tenant in chief, has died, to enquire and certify what lands and tenements he so held in that county, their value, the date of his death, who is his heir and of what age, the escheator being directed to seize the lands into the king's hand and keep them until further order.

Feb. 18. Westminster. Association of William Cotherstoke with John Cassy and William Gascoigne in the commission appointing them to take assizes, juries and certifications before the king's justices in the counties of Norfolk, Suffolk, Cambridge, Huntingdon, Bedford and Buckingham.

Mandate to the said John, William Gascoigne and William Cotherstoke, that if they cannot all be present, any two may proceed therein.

MEMBRANE 27*d*.

Feb. 5. Westminster. Commission to William Rykhill, Ralph Cheyne, Richard Sydenham, Thomas Pynchebek, William Brenchele, William Stourton and Nicholas Beynton to enquire and certify touching the title of Beatrice de Roos, late the wife of Richard de Burley, knight, to the manor of Netherburgate, co. Southampton, with its appurtenances, upon her petition for restitution thereof, alleging that John de Waltham, archdeacon of Richemund, now bishop of Salisbury, Peter de la Mare, knight, Roger Nassh, clerk, Hugh Vaghan, clerk, Roger Pertriche, John Sergeant and Stephen Makeshay, being seised of the said manor, granted it to the said Richard and Beatrice and their heirs tail, and in default of issue to the right heirs of the said Richard, by virtue of which grant they were seised thereof until his death, when amongst other his lands it was taken into the king's hand, and it being found by inquisition that the manor was granted as above she had livery thereof and was so seised, until by virtue of an inquisition before Henry Popham, then sheriff of Southampton, and John Bisteshorne, it was again taken into the king's hand, by which inquisition it was found that she granted her whole estate therein to Simon de Burley, knight, and that subsequently William de Burley, brother and heir of the said Richard, released his whole estate therein to the said Simon and his heirs, which Simon forfeited all his possessions by reason of the judgment against him in the Parliament at Westminster 11 Richard II, but that he never had any interest in the said manor before or after forfeiture by any grant of her the said Beatrice or in any other way; and that the said manor, by the name of the manor of Burgate with the hundred of Fordyngbrigg, has been by the king's letters patent granted to William Lekhull and Katharine, his wife, and the heirs of Katharine, the hundred being parcel of the manor. By p.s.

Feb. 14. Westminster. Commission of oyer and terminer to William Thirnyng, John Ailesbery, knight, Gerard Braybroke the younger, knight, Thomas Ailesbery, knight, John Wodevill, John Longevill and John Fitz Richard, on complaint by Richard Machon of Ravenston that Laurence Mortymer and John, his son, Walter Smyth and Thomas Mundesson, assembling several other evildoers, came armed to his dwelling at Ravenston, co. Buckingham, besieged it, broke his close and assaulted him and his servants.

Feb. 18. Westminster. Commission to Thomas Maureward of the county of Dublin, John Freyns of the county of Meath, Miles Haddesore of the county of Louth, John Skynnagh of the county of Kildare, John Danyell of the county of Kilkenny and Robert Sutton of the county of Wexford (Ways') to enquire and certify touching divers extortions, oppressions, misprisions and other injuries done to the king and his lieges in Ireland by Thomas Clifford, knight, late escheator there, under colour of his office.

Dec. 2. Westminster. Prohibition directed to archbishops, bishops, abbots, priors, deans, archdeacons and other ecclesiastics, notaries public and others—reciting the statute of the thirteenth year, against the acceptance of any benefice contrary to the statute [of Provisors] of 25 Edward III, and the penalty for suing execution of a provision by the Pope to any benefice that was full 29 January in the said year, and that the church of Bishops Cleeve was at that date and long before filled by Master John Haseley, by the collation to him thereof by Henry, bishop of Worcester, patron of the same, and that Master Henry Bowet and others seek to disturb his possession and expel him under the authority of certain graces, not executed at the date aforesaid, and are suing him in court Christian—against any such attempt to the prejudice of the king or damage of the said John. If already attempted, it is to be at once revoked.

Dec. 29. Westminster. Commission to Ralph de Euer, sheriff, Hugh Ardern, escheator in the county of York, David Rouclif, John de Ask and Stephen del Fall to enquire and certify what goods and chattels John de Lokton, who lately forfeited to the king, had on 1 October in the tenth year and since in the said county, their value, in whose hands they are and under what title.

Dec. 28. Westminster. Commission to Kennard de la Bere, knight, Thomas Oldecastell and Thomas Walwayn to enquire and certify what lands and tenements in the county of Hereford Simon de Burley, knight, deceased, held on the day he forfeited to the king, by what service, their value and who have since occupied them.

exclusive of the rent, of 7*s.* 8*d.*, as found by inquisition taken by Thomas Barentyn, escheator in Berks, to the said prior and the convent there, in aid of their maintenance.

July 1. Nottingham. Licence, for 20 marks paid to the king by George de Louthorp, clerk, and Walter de Askeby, for the alienation in mortmain by them of eight shops and an acre of land in the suburb of Lincoln, held of the king in burgage, to the chaplains of the chantry founded by Robert de Sutton in the church of St. Andrew, Wikford, in the said suburb, for maintaining certain charges as the said George and Walter shall order.

July 1. Nottingham. Restitution, with the assent of the Council, of the manor of Shipdon, co. Buckingham, to the abbot and convent of Thame under the following circumstances:—The said abbot and convent having by indenture dated Monday after the Annunciation in the eleventh year demised the said manor with its appurtenances, fines and amercements excepted, to John Beek the younger, son of John Beek of Dedersell, for 80 years, on condition that for the first six years he should pay to the abbot and his successors 34 marks, and afterwards 40 marks a year, and that if the rent should be a term in arrear or the said John should die within the time, it should be lawful for the abbot and his successors to re-enter the premises, the said manor by the name of the manor of Shibdongrange was seized into the king's hand by Alan de Kirketon, late escheator in that county, because it was found on inquisition before him that the said John had absconded for felony and also for a reason which was not true but feigned, viz. because lately the earl of Tuttebury (sic) gave the manor to the said abbot and convent, on condition that they found a chaplain to celebrate divine service thrice a week in the chapel of the manor, to distribute weekly amongst the poor a loaf of four bushels of corn and to pray for his soul and for the soul of the king and his progenitors, which for 20 years past was not maintained as ordained, whereas the said abbot and convent and their predecessors from time immemorial were seised of the manor in right of their church. Subsequently by letters patent the king granted the manor by the name of the manor of Shibdon in the parish of Queyntone, co. Buckingham, to John Verdon, esquire, to hold at farm so long as it should be in the king's hand, paying to the said abbot yearly as much as the said John Beek the younger paid under the indenture aforesaid, and the said rent being two terms unpaid, the abbot sued him by writ of scire facias to show cause why he the said abbot should not be seised thereof, and the said John Verdon failing to appear, these presents issue. By p.s.

Sept. 3. Beverley. Inspeximus and confirmation to the mayor and burgesses of Lenn Episcopi, on condition that 20*s.* a year is by them faithfully answered to the king and his heirs at all voidances of the see of Norwich, and for such times as the temporalities thereof are in the king's hands, after that rate, of letters patent tripartite of Henry le Despenser, bishop of Norwich, dated at Norwich the feast of the Assumption, 1392, and the confirmation thereof by Alexander, the prior, and the chapter of the cathedral church there, dated 17 August, 1392, being a grant by the said bishop to the said mayor and burgesses, their heirs and successors, at a fee farm rent of 20*s.* a year, of a mill site with its appurtenances in Lenn in the 'flete' near the Friars Minors, where a mill called 'Swaggesmyll' anciently stood, or another mill site in the said 'flete' as they shall choose, viz. between a place called 'Cannokyate' in Lenn and the old mill site, for building one or more water-mills in a house between the said bounds and in the said 'flete'; further, that they may dig in the bishop's ground there and carry away soil for the purpose as often as needful, without hindrance from the bishop or his bailiffs, but on condition that they keep the banks within metes and bounds without damage or prejudice to the bishop or his tenants; further, that the sea water from the great bank called 'le Havene' of Lenn shall ebb and flow in the said 'flete' through the bishop's land and demesne to Mintelyngg and further as of yore, to the use and profit of the mill, provided that the lands of the bishop and his tenants are not inundated or damaged by reason of the water not being as high in the 'flete' as heretofore, when 'Swaggesmyll' upon the said site was wont to be inundated, except only from increase of water, the effect of storm and tempest, and provided that the causeys or 'dammyng' between the 'flete' and the dyke of Lenn on the north side be kept up by the said mayor and burgesses as heretofore. In case of any hindrance to the flow of water to the mill to the damage thereof, the mayor, after notice to the bishop's steward and bailiffs to view the obstruction with him and twelve good men of the grand jury of Lenn, shall, in default of their appearance, proceed with the said men to remove such obstruction; saving to the bishop and his successors and tenants the power to construct bridges over the 'flete' and drove-ways to and fro (chaceis et rechaceis) for their animals and beasts over the same, in such a way that the ebb and flow of water therein is not hindered; with powers of distress, if the said rent be in arrear, and if there be insufficient to distrain upon, and the rent be a whole year in arrear, the mayor shall be required to pay, and in his default it shall be lawful for the bishop to re-enter on the premises. The mayor and burgesses agree that they and their successors or occupiers of the mill or mills shall yearly pay tithes at Lenn to the prior of Holy Trinity or to the prior of St. Margaret's in Norwich, a cell of the church of Holy Trinity. Witnessed by John de Ingaldesthorp, Edmund de Thorpe the younger, John Lestraunge, Robert de Berney, knights, John Boson, John de Middelton, Roger Dany, Richard de Walton, William Durant and others. For 40*s.* paid in the hanaper.

MEMBRANE 9*d*.

Jan. 10. Westminster. Commission to Edmund del Pole, knight, Thomas Skelton, Robert Parys and John Broun, to enquire and certify touching the petition of Aubrey de Veer, knight, alleging that by fine levied in the late reign at Westminster in the quinzaine of Michaelmas 15 Edward III, before Roger Hillary and other justices of the Common Bench, between John de Veer, earl of Oxford, and Maud, his wife, plaintiffs, and Richard de Stoke, clerk, and John Fermer, deforciants, the said earl acknowledged the manor of Caumpes, co. Cambridge, to be the right of the said John and Richard Fermer, for which acknowledgment the latter granted it to the said earl and Maud in tail, with remainder to the said earl's heirs, by virtue of which fine the said earl and Maud were seised thereof, and from them it descended to Thomas, their son and heir, and from him to Robert, his son and heir, and from him the right descended to the said petitioner, his uncle and heir, viz. brother of the said Thomas, because the said Robert died without heir of his body and the manor by virtue of the judgment in Parliament at Westminster in the eleventh year has been forfeited.
By p.s.

The like to Adam Fraunceys, knight, Thomas Charleton and Thomas Thornburgh, touching the petition as above, in respect of the manor of Kensyngton, co. Middlesex. By the same writ.

The like to Richard Waldegrave, knight, William Coggeshale, knight, Thomas Coggeshale and Robert Rykdon, in respect of the manors of Bumpstede, Canefeld and Fyngryth, co. Essex; the said petitioner alleging further that by fine levied therein at the same time between the said earl, plaintiff, and the said Richard de Stoke and John Fermer, deforciants, the earl acknowledged the castle and manor of Hengham, the manors of Hengham Sibille, Gelham, Stanstede, Dodyngherst and Dounham, co. Essex, to be the right of the said Richard and John, for which acknowledgment the latter granted the said castle and the manors of Hengham, Hengham Sibille, Gelham and Stanstede to the said earl in tail, as well as the reversion in fee of the manors of Dodyngherst and Dounham, after the deaths of William de Parco and William Crocheman, with remainder to the right heirs of the said earl; and further, that by fine levied therein at the same time between the earl and the parties aforesaid, the earl acknowledged the manor of Bourhall in the same county to be the right of the said Richard, for which the latter and the said John granted the reversion thereof, after the death of Robert de Vaux, to the said earl in tail, with remainder as above, by virtue of which fines the said earl [and Maud] were seised of the premises, which descended as above. By the same writ.

Item de mercato de Preston provideatur quod remanere possit absque indempnitate dictorum civium. Et sic provisum est quod stet in die Veneris sicut nunc est vel die Mercurii ad eleccionem predictorum civium. Item concedunt predicti cives, quantum in eis est, quod decanus et capitulum libere utantur in feodis suis in civitate Hereford' et in suburbio attachiamento de inhongenethef, secundum quod continetur in carta quam habent de domino Rege. Item omnes porte civitatis communes sint predictis episcopo, decano et capitulo, canonicis et eorum hominibus ad liberum introitum et exitum habendum sine impedimento dictorum civium vel ballivorum suorum. Et concessum est ex utraque parte quod procurabunt quod cirographum fiat super omnibus predictis in curia domini Regis. In cujus rei testimonium huic scripto in modum cirographi confecto partes alternatim sigilla sua apposuerunt. Et cirographo super premissis facto in curia domini Regis cunlibet (sic) dictarum parcium pars altera presentis scripti cum sigillis propriis restituitur. Acta apud Hereford die Martis in septimana Pasche anno Domini MCCLXII^do^ coram dominis Roberto Waloran et Nicholao de Turri, justiciariis a domino Rege deputatis. (Cf. Duncumb: History of Hereford, Vol. I. p. 300.)

II. Noverint universi presentes literas inspecturi vel audituri quod cum nuper suborta esset contencio inter venerabilem patrem dominum P. episcopum, et Antellum, decanum, et capitulum Hereford', ex una parte, et Ricardum Mamworth, Gilbertum Seym, Stephanum de la Hull, Thomam, filium Johannis, Willelmum Mael, Johannem Foliot, Walterum le Gauntter, Ricardum Penig, cives Hereford', et concives suos, homines domini Regis, ex altera, super quibusdam transgressionibus hincinde illatis pro quibus dicti cives denunciati fuerunt excommunicati, tandem sub hac forma conquievit, presentibus domino Edwardo, illustris Regis Anglie primogenito et quibusdam consiliariis suis, videlicet: Quod predicti cives pro se et heredibus suis concesserunt quod predicti episcopus, decanus et capitulum ac successores sui habeant decetero assisam et placitum panis et cervisie libere de omnibus hominibus ipsorum episcopi, decani et capituli in civitate Hereford'. Et si contingat aliquem de hominibus dictorum episcopi, decani et capituli attachiari per ballivos domini Regis Hereford' pro delicto assise panis et cervisie, restituetur de curia dictorum civium Regis ballivis dictorum episcopi, decani et capituli cum delicto suo attachiatus et in curia sua judicium suum recipiet et punietur. Dicti vero episcopus, decanus et capitulum pro se et successoribus suis concesserunt quod si aliquis hominum suorum Hereford' tercio convictus fuerit super assise panis et cervisie fraccione absque recepcione alicujus redempcionis, judicium pillorici vel tumberelli subibit et hoc idem concesserunt predicti cives de hominibus suis cum tercio super hoc fuerint convicti. Et eciam concesserunt pro se et heredibus suis prefatis episcopo, decano et capitulo et successoribus suis in perpetuum, sine contradiccione, calumpnia et impedimento sui vel heredum aut ballivorum suorum, pilloricum et tumberellum domini Regis in civitate Hereford' tam tempore nundinarum domini episcopi quam extra ad predicta judicia sua et alia facienda, cum contigerint per ballivos videlicet ipsorum episcopi, decani et capituli. Dictus vero episcopus quedam pilloricum et tumberellum, que idem episcopus levavit in civitate predicta, de quibus erat contencio in curia domini Regis, faciet amoveri, ita quod decetero non leventur absque speciali indulgencia domini Regis vel heredum suorum. Signa autem braciatorum, tinctorum, tannatorum, et marscallorum hominum dictorum episcopi, decani et capituli per prefatos cives Hereford' amota reducantur in statum pristinum per eosdem ad loca de quibus amota fuerunt.

Item dicti cives pro se et heredibus suis concesserunt quod ommes homines dictorum episcopi, decani et capituli et eorum successorum tam forincesi quam alii libere ement et vendant et communitatem habeant in civitate predicta sine omni teolonio, exaccione aliqua, calumpnia seu impedimento in perpetuum, excepta gente de advocaria. De muragio autem recepto ab hominibus dictorum episcopi, decani et capituli, prefati cives ad raciocinacionem se obligarunt dummodo iidem episcopus, decanus et capitulum eandem admittere voluerint. Et de muragio sic est provisum et concessum hincinde quod cum necesse fuerit claudere civitatem predictam, assignetur pars aliqua muri claudendi hominibus dictorum episcopi, decani et capituli et successorum suorum pro rata secundum quod majus et minus habent in civitate per visum quatuor legalium hominum neutri parti suspectorum, si simul concordare non poterunt ad dictam civitatem in communi claudendam. Dicti vero episcopus, decanus et capitulum et omnes homines sui liberum ingressum et egressum habeant in perpetuum per omnes partes civitatis predicte sine contradiccione vel impedimento predictorum civium vel heredum aut ballivorum suorum. Mercatum autem coreorum, si transferendum sit ad alium locum quam nunc est, de communi assensu tam hominum dictorum episcopi, decani et capituli quam predictorum civium amoveatur et ubi melius expedire viderint transferatur, libertatibus vero aliis quas tam dicti episcopus, decanus et capitulum quam cives memorati habent per cartas dicti domini Regis in nullo articulo prejudicetur racione presentis composicionis. Teolonium injuste captum ab hominibus dictorum episcopi, decani et capituli tempore contencionis restituetur. Omnes autem contenciones et indignaciones super quibuscumque querelis hincinde remisse sunt.

Et predicti cives brevia per ipsos attachiata in curia domini Regis versus predictos episcopum, decanum et capitulum sumptibus suis extrahent. Et predicta omnia ad securitatem majorem in rotulis domini Regis in proximo itinere justiciariorum itineraturorum in comitatu Hereford' iidem cives procurabunt irrotulari. Et prefatus episcopus eosdem cives qui pro transgressionibus ex parte sua illatis misiricordie episcopi se supposuerunt et eidem vadiaverunt ad plenam gratiam admisit. Qui quidem cives de parendo mandatis ecclesie jurati beneficium absolucionis obtinuerunt. Emendis (sic) vero dictorum civium pro trangressionibus supradictis prefatis episcopo, decano et capitulo faciendis, idem episcopus ad disposicionem domini Edwardi totaliter reliquid (sic). Ut autem ista composicio rata et inconcussa permaneat in perpetuum, partes presenti scripto in modum cirographi confecto sigilla sua alternatim apposuerunt, cui una pars communi sigillo dictorum civium signata penes dictos episcopum, decanum et capitulum, et pars altera sigillo ipsorum episcopi, decani et capituli penes dictos cives remanet signata. Hiis testibus, domino Rogero de Leyburn, domino Gilberto Talebot, dominis Johanne de Turbervill, Ada de Monte Alto, Hugone de Clifford, militibus, Johanne Breton, Nicholao de Legh, clericis domini Edwardi, Waltero Marescallo, Petro de le Wer', Rogero de Troye, Willelmo Tebaut, Roberto Werlawe et aliis. Feb. 21. Westminster. Commission to John Cassy, Robert de Whityngton, escheator in the county of Gloucester, William Aumondesham, John att Yate and Anselm Guyse, to enquire and certify touching the petition of Cecily Sage, Nicholas Mattesdon Drois (sic), Simon Cadel and Eva, his wife, and John Swonhongre, claiming the manor of Kyngeshome near Gloucester, held in chief. By fine levied in the quindene of St. John Baptist, 7 Edward III, before William de Herle and the other justices of that king, between John de Albeneye and Cecily, his wife, plaintiffs, and Elias de Godeleye, deforciant, the said Elias granted the manor to the said John and Cecily and the heirs of John by Cecily, by virtue whereof they were seised of it, and from them it descended to Elias, their son and heir, and from him to Elizabeth, his daughter and heir, and by her death without heir of her body petitioners claim that it came to the said Cecily Sage, Maud, Christiana and Isabel, her aunts and heirs, as daughters of the said John and Cecily, and sisters of the said Elias, and that Maud's interest descended to her son and heir William, and from him to his son the said Nicholas, kinsman and one of the heirs of the said Elizabeth; that Christiana's interest descended to her daughter the said Eva, kinswoman and another of the heirs of the said Elizabeth; and that Isabel's interest passed to Elias her son, and from him to his son the said John Swonhongre, kinsman and the third of the heirs of the said Elizabeth. The said Elizabeth, being convicted of murdering her husband Andrew Wauton, was burned, and thereupon the manor was forfeited to the king.

MEMBRANE 19.

Sept. 6. Westminster. Grant, reciting that by ancient ordinance of the cathedral church of Hereford there have been twenty-seven vicars in its choir, that they have a fair inn for their abode adjoining the church, and that they are supported from the revenues of certain lands and tenements, rents and services of small value from time to time granted to them by the faithful, in possession of which they have been from time immemorial, but that now doubt has arisen whether they are capable of holding and acquiring such possessions in future, because they are not established as a college incorporate by royal licence—that they and their successors be henceforth called 'the college of vicars in the choir of the church of Hereford,' one to be warden elected by the rest, without obtaining the king's licence or assent, that they be capable, as a college incorporate and private, of acquiring with the king's licence lands, tenements, rents and services in perpetuity, and of suing in all pleas, causes and actions, real and personal, &c. The patronage of the college is to belong to the king as founder and his heirs, and Walter Thoreleston, one of the said vicars, is to be the first warden, but this appointment by the king is not to impair their right to elect as above in future, and he and the vicars and their successors are to remain under the jurisdiction and obedience of the dean and chapter, as fully as they have hitherto been. Moreover the king confirms to them in frank almoin all the lands, &c. heretofore granted to them as above. By p.s.

MEMBRANE 3.

Sept. 28. Nottingham. Thomas Romayn, citizen of London, having in his will bequeathed inter alia all his tenements in the parish of St. Thomas the Apostle, lately belonging to the prior and convent of Lews, to his wife Juliana, for life, and at her death 6 marks of yearly quit-rent issuing therefrom for the support of a chaplain to celebrate divine service daily in the church of St. Thomas the Apostle, London, and directed that the said tenements charged with the payment aforesaid should be sold, and Edward II having pardoned all trespasses thereby committed and ratified the legacy in breach of the statute of mortmain, the executors sold the same to Andrew Aubrey, citizen and pepperer of London, his heirs and assigns, charged as aforesaid, and chaplains have duly enjoyed the rent since her death, but without licence of the king; the king accordingly, by advice of the Council and for a fine of 12 marks paid in the hanaper by John Kyngeshous, now parson of the said church, hereby confirms the legacy aforesaid to the said John and his successors, parsons of that church, for the support of the said chaplain, and pardons all trespasses and forfeitures incurred. By K. & C.

Nov. 26. Westminster. Writ of aid for the prior of the Augustinian priory of St. Botolph, Colchester, in the diocese of London, deputed by Robert, bishop of London, to levy in the archdeaconry of Colchester the clerical tenth and moiety of a tenth heretofore granted to the king, payment whereof divers ecclesiastics resist.

Dec. 2. Westminster. John Export, of London, being seised in his demesne as of fee of two tenements in London, in the south corner of Cordewaner-strete in the parish of Aldermariechirche, viz., one between a tenement of the prioress and convent of Derteford in the same street, on the north, and a tenement of John Spencer, 'cotiller,' in Wattillyng-strete, on the west, and the other between a tenement of John Pas on the west in Wattillyng-strete and one of Hugh Fastolf on the south in Cordewaner-strete, made his will in the year 52 Henry III, appointing John Pas and Silvester le Cordewaner his executors, and died without heir, having in his will directed his executors to find from the rent issuing from the said tenements a chaplain to celebrate divine service for his soul; whereupon his executors dying without heirs, the premises came to the king's hands as an escheat and are valued at 11*l.* a year, as appears by inquisition taken on 20 July last before John Fressh, mayor of London, and escheator therein; the king, in consideration of the intention of the said John Export, founds a perpetual chantry of one secular chaplain to celebrate divine service at the altar of St. John the Baptist in a chapel by the church of Aldermariechirche upon le Charnell, for the good estate of the king whilst living, and for his soul after death and the souls of the late queen Anne, the king's progenitors, the said John Export and others; and further grants to John Dry, secular chaplain, that he be perpetual chaplain of the chantry, and that his successors at every voidance be presented by the king and his heirs at the nomination of the parson of the church, and finally the king grants to the said John Dry, chaplain, and his successors, the said two tenements in mortmain. By p.s. and for 40*l.* paid in the hanaper.

June 16. Westminster. Revocation, giving effect to a decision in Chancery after mature deliberation with the justices and other skilled persons of the king's council, of the presentation of William Ekynton, to the church of Nuny, co. Somerset, notwithstanding his admission, institution and induction thereto; on the petition of Alexander, son and heir of Thomas de Monte Forti, knight, claiming the same under the following circumstances:—Alexander, son of Alexander de Monte Forti, being seised in his demesne as of fee of certain lands and tenements in Nuny and of the advowson of Nuny, presented Robert de Frome, his clerk, thereto, who was duly admitted, instituted and inducted in the time of Henry III; afterwards by fine levied at Westminster in Trinity term in the year 27 Henry III, before Robert de Lexington and the other justices of the [Common] Bench, the said Alexander, son of Alexander, granted for himself and the heirs of his body that Henry de Monte Forti and the heirs of his body should present on the first voidance, and after the death of the clerk so presented, the said Alexander, son of Alexander, and the heirs of his body should present and so alternately on every voidance. Accordingly on the death of the said Robert de Frome, Henry de Monte Forti presented William Mouseley in the time of Edward I, and the said Alexander, son of Alexander, dying, the advowson descended to Alexander, his son and heir, who when it was void by the death of William Mouseley presented his clerk John Dalagrave, and the said Henry de Monte Forti dying, the advowson descended successively to Geoffrey, his son and heir, and John, son of the said Geoffrey, the latter of whom in accordance with the fine aforesaid presented John Nuny on the death of the said John Dalagrave in the time of Edward III. The said Alexander, son of Alexander, son of Alexander, dying, it descended to Laurence, his son and heir, who by his deed granted the presentation on the first voidance to William Colford, who in right of the said Laurence, presented Robert Newenham. The said John, son of Geoffrey, dying, it descended to Henry, his son and heir, who, on its voidance by the death of Robert Newenham, presented William Lydford thereto, and on his resignation the said Laurence presented John Mere, and on his resignation the said Henry, son of John, son of Geoffrey, presented John Folk. On the death of the said Laurence it descended to Thomas, his son and heir, and at his death to the said Alexander, his son, who, although entitled, on its voidance by the death of John Folk, to present his clerk thereto, was craftily hindered by the presentation obtained by the said William Ekynton, who has been summoned at the instance of the sheriff of Somerset by William Coby and John Holeman to appear and show cause against the revocation, and he appearing in person and petitioner by John Tibbay and John Pygot the elder, clerks, his guardians, this revocation issues as above.

June 16. Westminster. Declaration and order—on information that although the vicars of the cathedral church of St. Peter, York, have by virtue of the king's grant and licence, which are recited, appropriated the church of St. Sampson in that city, and keep their house in common, yet some of them, seeking their private advantage, attempt to apply certain sums of money derived from the revenues of that church to their own use for the time of their absence from the common table on such days and times when they happen of their own choice to be at the table of the canons residentiary or others by custom of the church of York or otherwise—that they shall henceforth receive nothing in money or otherwise for such times of absence, but that the profit arising thereby shall accrue to the common household expenses of the vicars living there in common. By K.

June 15. Westminster. Exemption, for life, of Edward Boteler, who is sixty years of age and more, from being put on assizes, juries, attaints or recognitions, and from being made mayor, sheriff, coroner, escheator, commissioner, justice of the peace or of labourers, collector of tenths, fifteenths or other tallages or subsidies, taxor, assessor or controller of the same, trier, leader of men-at-arms, armed men or hobelers, or other officer or minister of the king, against his will. By p.s.

June 20. Westminster. March 29. York. Commission to William Weston, Richard Longynowe and the sheriff of Wilts to enquire of waste, estrepements, impoverishments, dilapidations, trespasses, damages, defaults and destructions in the alien priory of Clatford in the king's hand on account of the war with France.

MEMBRANE 19*d*.

Jan. 8. Woodstock. Commission to Ralph de Eure, knight, William Gascoigne and John Woderove to enquire touching the petition of Sibyl, late the wife of Roger de Fulthorpe, knight, alleging that her said husband by charter before marriage granted to her the manor of Mikelfeld, co. York, with other manors, lands, tenements, rents and services in that county, to hold for life with remainder to William, his son, and his heirs and assigns for ever; and that the said manor by virtue of the judgment against him in Parliament in the eleventh year was among his other possessions seized into the king's hands, and afterwards granted by the king's letters patent to David Holgrave and Ellen, his wife, and their heirs under a certain form, and thereby she, the said Sibyl, has been prevented from enjoying the benefit of her said husband's grant. By K.

MEMBRANE 18*d*.

March 8. York. Commission to Richard Chelmeswyk, Roger del Haye, Thomas Gateacre, William Palmer and the sheriff of Salop, on information that divers books, vestments, chalices, jewels and other possessions of the king's hospital of St. John, Bruggenorth, have been dissipated by the carelessness of the wardens of the hospital, and other damage done tending to its utter destruction, to survey the state thereof and enquire by jury of the county touching the premises and certify; Thomas, archbishop of York, chancellor of the king, to whom the visitation of the hospital belongs, being too busy to attend thereto.

Commission to John Markham, John Woderoue, John Conyers and John del Bars. [As above, Membrane 81*d*.]

MEMBRANE 12*d*.

May 17. Westminster. Commission to John Lovell, Thomas Percy, Richard Abberbury, Laurence Dru and William Wilcotes, as divers suits, dissensions and debates have arisen between the king's burgesses, the mayor, bailiffs, commonalty and certain persons of Coventry, of the one part, and William Bagot, of the other part, to summon all the parties before them at Bannebury, hear their reasons and bring them to a peaceful agreement as best they can, imposing silence upon them, and to certify the names of objectors, if any, and all their proceedings, arresting and keeping under arrest until further order all such contrariants. By K. and C.

their houses, to find mainpernors in reasonable penalties to do them no harm, viz. Thomas Dyfford, William de Bolton, John de Melsyngby, William Tournour, Thomas Hertson, Andrew de Haryngton, Peter Holbankman, Thomas Robynson of Neuby, John de Kendale, William Lightlope, John de Ascome, Robert de Tyrell, Adam Hobson, Robert Nicolson, William, son of Robert Taillour of Morland, Richard Donkare, Thomas Hotblak, Thomas de Chestre, Matthew de Chestre, Thomas Walker of Little Strikland, William del Bakhous of Neuby, and Thomas Brian of Thirneby; with power to imprison any who decline to find security until they do. By K.

Feb. 11. Nottingham. Commission of oyer and terminer to John Wadham, John Prestcote, John Ralegh of the county of Somerset, and Thomas Reymond, on complaint by Hugh Courtenay, knight, that William, abbot of Bukfast, and William Beaghe, his fellow-monk, John Bonevill, William Berde, Walter Symound and Peter Colle and other evildoers, with a great multitude of armed men and archers, broke his close and house at Nymet Tracy, co. Devon, prevented Robert Hoygge, clerk of the said Hugh's steward of his said manor court, who frequently in his steward's absence holds pleas of the said court, as well as Robert Pocok, bailiff of the manor, the one from holding the said court and the other from levying and collecting the tenants' rents and the issues and fines of the court, and assaulted and imprisoned both, and also his men, servants and tenants, and so threatened them that they did not dare to attend to their business or remain on their holdings. For 40s. paid in the hanaper.

June 18. Westminster. Commission to William Rikhill and William Brenchesle to enquire what estate Nicholas Audelegh of Helegh, knight, deceased, had in two parts of the manor and advowson of Taustok, co. Devon, of whom he held and by what service, the inquisition taken before John Harley, late escheator, and returned into Chancery, not stating these facts.

MEMBRANE 4d.

June 12. Westminster. Commission to Thomas Botiller, dean of the king's free chapel of St. George, Windsor Castle, Nicholas Loude, under-constable of that castle, to enquire touching the withdrawal and sale of divers books, vestments, chalices, ornaments and other utensils, charters, writings and other muniments belonging to the chapel of St. Peter near Windsor called 'le Spitell,' co. Berks, and whether the chapel is usually held by a clerk or by a lay person. By C.

MEMBRANE 2d.

June 20. Westminster. Commission to William Purefrey, Thomas Frysby, Hugh de Dalby, escheator in the counties of Warwick and Leicester, and Henry Nevill, sheriff of those counties, to enquire touching waste in the priory of Kyrkeby Monachorum, seized into the late king's hand and now in the king's hand, and in the churches, chapels, lands and other possessions of the priory.

June 16. Westminster. Commission of oyer and terminer to Robert de Nevill of Horneby, John de Depeden, Hugh Huls, John Markham and John de Ingelby, on complaint by the abbot of Fountains that William de Mallom of Calton,

Thomas Freklyngton, John de Warderobe, Robert Jolyf and other evil-doers armed entered his free chaces and warrens at Brymbem, Gnoupe, Dernebroke, Balderby, Marton, Sutton, Aldeburgh, Slenyngford, Cayton and Thorpe Undirwode, hunted therein without his leave, took and carried away his trees felled at Mallom and Kilnese, dug his soil at Bordelay in Craven and Queldryk, to the value of 100 marks, took deer, hares, coneys, pheasants and partridges, and lay in wait to kill him and certain of his fellow-monks at Makerschage, Thorneton Wode and Morkersall near Fountains abbey, so that they could not and still cannot go outside the abbey without a great posse and in array, assaulted his servant Thomas Chese at Bordelay, made his men and servants keeping his cattle there and at Malmore, Littondale, Gnoupe, Overbordelay, Netherbordelay, Kilnesay and Malwaterhouse as well as his tenants there, to swear upon the crosses of their swords that they would never serve the abbot any more nor remain upon their holdings any longer, nor cultivate his lands nor occupy his houses nor keep his cattle, and [threatened] if they did the contrary, they would cut off their heads. For 20*s.* paid in the hanaper.
